

Bethany N. Desjardin

Beth attended Quinebaug Valley Community College (QVCC) in Danielson before transferring to Eastern Connecticut State University (ECSU), where she double-majored in Accounting and Economics; she graduated summa cum laude from ECSU with a bachelor's degree. Beth held a variety of accounting positions before joining The Learning Clinic as its Finance and Human Resources manager, a post she held for nine years before accepting a job at the University of Connecticut (UCONN) in Storrs. She joined EASTCONN's Finance team as the Grants Manager in 2015. She has done graduate work at UCONN in the fields of Accounting and Social Work. She also successfully passed the CPA exam, and is certified as a School Business Administrator (085), as well as a Connecticut Notary Public. Contact Beth at bdesjardin@eastconn.org.
