

Joni L Weglein, Chief Financial Officer

Joni L. Weglein was named EASTCONN's Chief Financial Officer in January 2020, after serving for several months as the agency's acting CFO. Her prior role at EASTCONN was as its Business Office manager. Before moving to EASTCONN, Weglein worked for more than 10 years as a senior internal auditor at United Natural Foods, Inc., in Rhode Island. Her experience included working as an internal auditor for the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation in Ledyard, where she also served as director of finance at the Mashantucket Pequot Museum and Research Center. Weglein has a strong background in establishing and managing accounting policies and procedures; auditing; and creating and monitoring effective internal control environments. A graduate of Johnson and Wales in Providence, R.I., Weglein holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and an associate's degree in finance.
