SECONDARY TRANSITION SERVICES BY EASTCONN EXPERTS.

In collaboration with an onsite team of educators and specialists, students receive Assistive Technology, Occupational Technology, and Speech and Language Services as well as Physical Therapy when needed.

Through partnerships with a wide variety of businesses in the local community, students have access to a broad range of career options based on their abilities, skills and areas of interest.

EASTCONN, which administers the Transition Services program, is a public, non-profit Regional Educational Service Center that has been serving the education needs of northeastern Connecticut’s schools and communities since 1980. Learn more at www.eastconn.org.

For more information about EASTCONN and its programs and services, please call EASTCONN’s Communications Department at 860-455-0707, or visit www.eastconn.org.

Providing students with disabilities, ages 18-21, with college and career readiness through community based transitional education opportunities.
Begin Your Quest for the 3Cs with Regional Transition Services (RTS)!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>College</th>
<th>Community</th>
<th>Career</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Eligible students have opportunities to take college classes and experience the difference between high school and college.</td>
<td>Students learn skills to help them live as independently as possible.</td>
<td>Individualized goal-setting and self-determination skills are used to guide career exploration.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skills to be successful in college, such as planning, scheduling and studying, are developed and refined with supports provided by RTS, as needed.</td>
<td>Opportunities to build social skills through participation in community activities are numerous: NE CT transit bus, banks, stores, restaurants, fitness center and field trips.</td>
<td>Students learn and practice job-search strategies and the necessary skills for maintaining employment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students form relationships with QVCC Student Support Services. Guidance is provided by RTS to students, as needed.</td>
<td>RTS helps students and families access services in their communities and partner with adult service agencies.</td>
<td>Employability skills sought by employers are developed and practiced through paid internships with support by RTS provided as needed.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

RTS offers a continuum of support, including:
- Full or part-time services for students who need supports across community, career and college/training settings.
- Individualized services for students who need assistance while they participate in a 5th-year option in community, career and/or college/training settings.

---

For more information please contact:

Amy Norton
Transition Coordinator
860-933-1826
anorton@eastconn.org

Christine DiGiacomo
Transition Coordinator
860-933-1257
CDiGiacomo@eastconn.org

---

EASTCONN
Regional Transition Services
on the campus of QVCC
742 Upper Maple Street
Danielson, CT 06239
Phone: 860-428-0163 or 860-932-4193
Fax: 860-932-4950