Compensation Policy

The EASTCONN Board of Directors seeks to maintain a compensation program that will keep EASTCONN in a favorable, competitive position as an employer and will encourage professional growth and personal improvement among the staff.

The EASTCONN Executive Director shall develop and recommend wage and salary schedules for administrative and unaffiliated personnel and for certified and non-certified employees and shall present such schedules to the EASTCONN Board of Directors for approval consistent with any applicable collective bargaining agreements.

All wage and salary schedules approved by the EASTCONN Board of Directors cover July 1st through June 30th of the appropriate fiscal year.
